

MA CLASSES OFFERED OVER THE NEXT 4 YEARS

(offered through the Cedar Rapids, Iowa, branch)

This class chart may change if we need to accommodate faculty needs and schedules.

	Quarter 1	Quarter 2	Quarter 3	Quarter 4
AY 2019-20	Presuppositional Apologetics	The Church and Contemporary Culture	Shepherding: Models and Roles in the Church	Major Figures in Reformed Thought and Practice
AY 2020-21	Interpretation and Communication: Narrative and Prophetic Genres	Interpretation and Communication: Poetic and Didactic Genres	Biblical Theology: Old Testament	Biblical Theology: New Testament
AY 2021-22	Pauline Theology: Romans	Johannine Theology: Gospel of John & 1 John	Shepherding: It's Dangers and Demands	Shepherding: Counseling and Practical Ministry
AY 2022-23 Rotation Renews	Presuppositional Apologetics	The Church and Contemporary Culture	Shepherding: Models and Roles in the Church	Major Figures in Reformed Thought and Practice

NOTES

- 1) All classes are 3-credits on a Master of Arts level in terms of load.
- 2) Students must take all 12 of these classes.
- 3) Each class will have a writing assignment of at least 3,000 words. Usually, the reading load will vary from 400 to 800 pp., depending on the content and approach of the class.
- 4) If taken at distance, classes will have a live-streaming component or a live-conversation (via phone) component.